

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: March 10, 1995

SUBJECT: SB 646 - HB 1102

This bill, if enacted, will delete the affirmative defense that the minor was accompanied by a parent or guardian with regard to prosecution for sale, loan or exhibition of material or show of nudity, sexual conduct, excess violence or sado-masochastic abuse to minors.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill will depend upon the number of persons convicted of this offense and the resultant increased cost to local governments to confine such persons versus the increased revenues to local governments from fines levied and collected under the provisions of this bill. Therefore, the fiscal impact cannot be readily determined, but is estimated to be not significant.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director
